UM LIBRARY TO RECEIVE $3,494 FOR BOOKS
WEDNESDAY FROM LIQUID ASSETS CORPORATION

MISSOULA--

University of Montana students representing the University Liquid Assets Corporation (ULAC) will present a donation of $3,494.34 to the UM Library Wednesday, May 5, for the purchase of library books.

UM President Richard C. Bowers and UM Library officials will be on hand to accept the check from ULAC representatives at noon Wednesday in the mall between the Library and University Center.

Funds for the UM Library books were raised during the fourth annual Benefit Kegger sponsored last spring by the ULAC near Missoula.

Tom J. Staples, Butte, a senior in economics at UM, who is ULAC president and chairman of the ULAC Board of Directors, said the $3,494.34 for UM Library books represents the largest portion of the net income from the 1975 Benefit Kegger.

Two other organizations--the Missoula County Youth Law Enforcement Summer Camp and the Missoula County Humane Society--each received $710.36 of the net income from the ULAC's 1975 Benefit Kegger, Staples said. The ULAC also retained $200 from the 1975 Benefit Kegger's net income for expenses for the 1976 Benefit Kegger, according to Staples.

The 1976 Benefit Kegger will be held May 25 at the K.O. Rodeo Grounds, Upper Miller Creek Road, southwest of Missoula.
